In 2004, nationally acclaimed artist Eugene Daub was commissioned by the State of Montana to produce a 16½ feet wide by 8 feet high piece commemorating the 1805-1806 Lewis and Clark Corps of Discovery in Montana.

This bronze relief, entitled "We Proceeded On" will be the centerpiece of the Senate Chamber in the Montana State Capitol.

75 limited edition numbered bronze replicas, measuring 29 inches wide by 14 inches high are now available. $3,500 each.

The bronze medallion (approx. 3") was drawn from the lower border of the mural – $80.00 each
